Border dispute with China

162. SHRI K. VASUDEVA PANICKER:
SHRI VITHALRAO MADHAVRAO JADHAV:
SHRI SATYA PAL MALIK:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether any talks to resolve border dispute with China have been held recently; and

(b) if so, the outcome thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) and (b) At the seventh Round of official level Talks between India and China held in Beijing from July 21 to 23, 1986 substantive discussions were held on the boundary question. The Chinese side reiterated that the Eastern sector was the area of "largest dispute". In response, the Indian side clearly enunciated our stand and pointed out that the India-China boundary in the Eastern sector was the traditional customary line which was well known and had, in addition, received sanction by treaty and administrative jurisdiction. During this round, discussions also commenced on the Western sector.

The boundary question was also taken up by the then External Affairs Minister, Shri P Shiv Shanker, in his meeting with the Chinese Foreign Minister, Wu Xueqian on 18th September, 1986 in New York.
